

Your guests ask where to get a haircut. Can your team answer well?

Concierge grooming training that helps staff recommend the right barber for every guest and every hair type.

THE PROBLEM

A shop with five-star reviews can still be the wrong fit. Many barbers specialize in certain hair textures, and a guest with coily 4C hair and a guest with straight hair need very different shops.

Most concierge desks recommend whatever is closest or most popular. When it goes wrong, the guest remembers who sent them.

WHAT YOUR TEAM GETS

- A quick reference to hair types 1A–4C, so staff know what to ask
- A vetted local barber list organized by texture and style
- Guest-ready language that is respectful and inclusive
- Red flags to screen out before recommending a shop
- Branded copies of the guide for VIP rooms and guest gifts

PROGRAMS

Concierge Training (60–90 min)

Live or virtual session for front desk, concierge and guest-services teams.

Local Barber Guide

A custom, texture-aware list of recommended shops near your property.

In-Room & Gift Editions

Co-branded copies of the guide for suites, loyalty members and events.

BUILT ON THE N.O.M.A.D.I.C. METHOD™

Needs Awareness · Online Research · Multicultural Experience · Ask the Right Questions · Discipline & Consistency · Image Alignment · Cultural Awareness

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

DeWayne A. Dickerson is a 20-year U.S. Navy veteran and the author of The Nomadic Barber Grooming Guide — a global framework for maintaining a consistent grooming standard across every city, culture, and hair type (1A–4C). He brings a service-first standard to hospitality teams who want every guest to leave looking and feeling their best.